The use of GPS spoofing or any other technology that misrepresents GPS locations and being located at an Eligible Location is strictly prohibited and will disqualify any player from eligibility.

HOW TO WIN: The Promotion Period consists of six (6) separate Entry Periods.

Eligible Participants: All Eligible Participants will compete against one another for a chance to win one (1) of six (6) prizes for each separate Entry Period as further described below. The Eligible Participant with the highest cumulative points at the end of each Entry Period from across all Eligible Locations wins the applicable prize for that Entry Period. In the case of a tie for place one (1) at the conclusion of an Entry Period, such players will split the applicable prize evenly as further described below.

GAME RULES: The Game is based on SIX® Trivia. Each Game is sixty (60) minutes and consists of four (4) rounds featuring questions from six (6) different categories.

Round 1 (Easy SIX): Consists of 6 multiple-choice questions - 1 question for each of the 6 categories. Each question is worth a maximum of 250 points. A perfect score (i.e., 1,500 points) in Round 1 gets an additional 500 points (i.e., 2000 total points). Each question has 4 possible answers. The timer, represented by the points system, will start to decrease, starting at 250 until the timer reaches 0. In summary, Contestant will only receive the amount of points that they earned per question (locked into) in the speed that they answer the question in – the faster the correct answer, the more points Contestant receives. Contestant can change his/her answer at any time before the timer hits 0, but the points earned get lower each time. Points are only awarded for correct answers, once the counter has expired. There is no penalty for getting the answer wrong or failing to answer. Contestant will receive no points for incorrect answers.

Round 2 (Match SIX): Consists of 12 matching based questions (4 matching pairs per question), 2 questions per category. Contestant must match the highlighted words, numbers, names, titles or phrases in the left column to their match in the right column before time runs out. The maximum points per question is 1000 points. If Contestant scores 1000 points on any question, he/she will receive an additional 500 points (i.e., up to 1500 points per question). A perfect score in Round 2 gets Contestant an additional 1,000 points. There is no penalty for getting the answer wrong or failing to answer. Contestant will receive no points for incorrect answers.

Round 3 (Marathon SIX): Consists of 18 multiple-choice questions, 3 per category. Each question has 3 possible answers. Points awarded for correct answers increase per question (e.g., Question 1 - 500 points, Question 3 - 560 points, etc.). As points increase per question, the allowed time to answer decreases. As in Round 1, the longer Contestant takes to answer, the lower the points he/she may receive. A perfect score in Round 3 gets an additional 2000 points. There is no penalty for getting the answer wrong or failing to answer. Contestant will receive no points for incorrect answers.

Round 4 (Final SIX): Consists of 6 multiple-choice questions, 1 per category. Each question has 4 possible answers. Each question has a starting maximum value of 1,000 points. As in Round 1, the timer, represented by the points system, will start to decrease, until it reaches 0. The difference in Round 4 is that Contestant must select a multiplier (up to 6X) prior to the question appearing. Contestant will be presented with the question category concurrently at the time of selecting the multiplier. Each multiplier can only be used once. There is no penalty for getting the answer wrong or failing to answer. Contestant will receive no points for incorrect answers.

If at any time, for any reason whatsoever, the Contestant leaves the Promotion, or for any reason loses contact with the Promotion (e.g., game device loses battery, there is a loss of internet connection for any reason), they can attempt to log back into the current Entry Period. Sponsor shall not be liable for: (1) any electronic miscommunications or failures, technical hardware or software failures of any kind, lost or unavailable network connections, or failed incomplete, garbled or delayed computer transmissions which may limit a Contestant's ability to participate in the Promotion; or (2) any technical malfunctions of the telephone network, computer on-line system, computer equipment, software, program malfunctions or other failures, delayed computer transactions or network connections that are human, mechanical or technical in nature, or any combination thereof, including any injury or damage to Contestant's or any other person's computer or mobile device related to or resulting from downloading the App or otherwise in connection with this Promotion.

The Sponsor's decisions will be final and binding on all parties. Sponsor, in its sole discretion, may disqualify Contestant from the Promotion, refuse to award prizes and require the return of any prizes, or suspend, limit, or terminate Contestant's PlayersPlus account if you engage in conduct Sponsor deems, in its sole discretion, to violate these Official Rules, Sponsor's Terms of Service, or be improper, unfair, fraudulent or otherwise adverse to the operation of this Promotion or in any way detrimental to other users.
